

Sheth N.K.T.T. college of Commerce and Sheth J.T.T. college of Arts, Thane

Department of SOCIOLOGY

Program Specific Outcomes for the B.A. Degree in Sociology:

1. Critical Thinking: Demonstrate critical thinking skills by analysing and evaluating social, political, and/or cultural arguments, across a variety of areas such as inequality; social problems; and race, class, and gender.
2. Sociological Understanding: Demonstrate sociological understandings of phenomena, for example, how individual biographies are shaped by social structures, social institutions, cultural practices, and multiple axes of difference and/or inequality.
3. Written and Oral Communication: Formulate effective and convincing written and/or oral arguments.
4. Social Theory: Demonstrate the ability to use several of the major classical and/or contemporary perspectives in social theory.
5. Research Methodology: Demonstrate the ability to use several of the major social science research methodologies.

FYBA
SEMESTER I
FOUNDATIONS OF SOCIOLOGY

COURSE OUTCOMES:

After completion of the course, students would be able to:

Gain a deeper and clear understanding of Sociology with an updated knowledge of career opportunities in the subject.

Analyze factors that contribute towards bringing about changes in various social Structures and institutions.

FYBA
SEMESTER II
FUNDAMENTALS OF SOCIOLOGY

COURSE OUTCOMES:

After completion of the course, learners would be able to

Analyze factors that contribute towards bringing about changes in various social Structures and institutions.

Comprehend the challenges and issues faced by different sections in the society

SYBA
Sociology-II
Semester –III
INDIAN SOCIETY: STRUCTURE AND CHANGE

COURSE OUTCOME

Understanding of basics and theoretical framework of Indian Sociology.

Getting accustomed with the contemporary social challenges and debates in Indian Society.

SYBA
Sociology III
Semester III
CONTEMPORARY ISSUES IN INDIAN SOCIETY

COURSE OUTCOMES:

Learners would be acquainted with the significant debates in the field of Sociology.

SYBA
SOCIOLOGY-II
SEMESTER-IV
SOCIOLOGY OF DEVELOPMENT

COURSE OUTCOMES:

Understanding of the theoretical approaches and arguments against the current development model.

The analysis of the different research traditions will enable the student to make rational choices of methods to be used while doing field based research.

SYBA
Sociology III
Semester IV
EMERGING FIELDS IN SOCIOLOGY

COURSE OUTCOMES:

Helps broaden the scope of Sociology.

Students would be updated with the challenges and opportunities that the emerging fields of Sociology have to offer.

TYBA
Paper IV
SEMESTER V
Social Theory

COURSE OUTCOMES:

Student will be able to define theory and illustrate its role in building sociological knowledge.

Will help the students to compare and contrast basic theoretical orientations in reference to social phenomena.

TYBA
Paper V
SEMESTER V
Sociology of work

COURSE OUTCOMES:

Demonstrate how global processes shape local social structures and the effects on individuals.

Show how institutions interconnect in their effects on each other and on individuals.

TYBA
Paper VI
Semester V
Sociology of Gender

COURSE OUTCOMES:

Conceptual clarity of categories to be studied under gender studies.

Understanding different perspectives of feminism in Indian and Western wave of feminism.

TYBA
PAPER IV
SEMESTER VI
ANTHROPOLOGICAL THOUGHT

COURSE OUTCOMES:

Students will be aware of the historical development of anthropology and be able to characterize how each subfield contributes to the unified discipline.

They will be able to understand the biological and biocultural evolution, evaluate both scientific debates and cultural controversies over genetic determinism, race, and cultural evolution.

TYBA
PAPER V
Semester VI
Sociology of Informal sector

COURSE OUTCOMES:

Students will be able to understand and analyze significant concepts pertaining to informal sector.

Students will be aware of the growing challenges faced by the workers of informal sector.

TYBA
Semester VI
Paper VI
Gender and Society in India: Emerging Issues

COURSE OUTCOMES:

Sensitization and awareness of the grass root problems of Indian women.

Broaden horizon of attitudes toward alternative sexualities and their realities.

Understanding women struggles by the current scenario of protests and struggles.

