NSS 7 Days Residential Camp (Academic Year 2025–2026)

Sheth T.J. Education Society's Sheth N.K.T.T. College of Commerce and Sheth J.T.T. College of Arts, Thane, successfully organized a 7 Days NSS Residential Camp at Arogya Yog and Naturopathy Centre, Jambhlihar, Badlapur, from 30th December 2025 to 5th January 2026. The camp was conducted in line with the NSS motto "Not Me, But You", aiming to promote community service, social responsibility, environmental awareness, health consciousness, leadership skills, and overall personality development among student volunteers. The camp commenced with cleanliness drives and awareness sessions focusing on mental health, academic performance, and social communication through street plays. Volunteers actively participated in Shramdaan, forest conservation activities, environmental awareness programs, and book distribution to promote education in the adopted area. Health and well-being were addressed through a Health Check-Up Camp, sessions on mindful living, stress management during examinations, menstrual hygiene awareness, and distribution of hygiene kits. Significant emphasis was laid on social issues such as de-addiction, cyber security, road safety, plastic-free living, and government welfare schemes through impactful street plays and community campaigns. Volunteers also engaged in school teaching, dam repair work for water conservation, and distribution of cloth bags to encourage eco-friendly practices. Special sessions on NSS and personality grooming, self-defense training, emotional management, and interactions with ex-NSS volunteers enriched the learning experience. Daily routine activities such as cloth bag making, public speaking sessions, street play practice, and team-building exercises contributed to enhancing leadership, communication skills, teamwork, and discipline among volunteers. The camp concluded with feedback and experience-sharing sessions, fostering reflection and collective learning. Overall, the NSS Residential Camp proved to be a transformative experience, strengthening students' social awareness, civic sense, leadership abilities, and community engagement. The camp successfully nurtured socially responsible, confident, and compassionate youth committed to nation-building and community welfare.

Campus Carnival “Fantasy Fiesta” Brings Disney Magic to College Campus

The Students' Council, in collaboration with various major committees, successfully organized Campus Carnival: Fantasy Fiesta on 8th December, transforming the college campus into a vibrant Disney-inspired wonderland. The fictional theme created a lively and colorful atmosphere, adding charm and excitement to the entire event. The carnival commenced with a brief yet graceful inauguration ceremony in the presence of respected dignitaries and college authorities. The Principal addressed the gathering and shared motivating insights, encouraging students to actively participate and make the most of such co-curricular platforms. Following the inspiring speech, the carnival was officially inaugurated and the games began with great enthusiasm. The primary objectives of the event were to encourage active student participation, promote teamwork and coordination, foster creativity and spontaneous thinking, and inculcate a spirit of sportsmanship. The carnival also aimed to provide a refreshing break for students after their stressful examinations while strengthening interpersonal skills and collaboration. One of the major highlights of the event was the meticulous planning and execution by the Students' Council under the guidance of the Convener and teacher members. The President, Secretary, Ladies' Representative, and other Council members played an active role in organizing and managing the event smoothly. The carnival featured a variety of engaging and interactive games, including Chai Pe Charcha, Fun Game Zone activities, Six-Leg Pentathlon, Traitors, and a special Teacher Fun Segment, which added a unique and entertaining dimension to the celebration. Students dressed as Disney and other fictional characters, enhancing the magical theme and creating a visually captivating experience across the campus. The event witnessed an impressive participation of around 53 groups, with five members in each group, totaling 265 students. Registration and participation were free of cost, ensuring inclusivity and encouraging large-scale involvement. Students actively engaged in all the activities and shared positive feedback, appreciating the fun-filled, interactive, and stress-relieving nature of the carnival. Overall, Fantasy Fiesta proved to be a grand success, leaving behind joyful memories and strengthening the spirit of unity and creativity among students.
